DESIGN ANTONIO CITTERIO

FLEXFORM

“THE DESIGN PROJECT ORIGINATED WITH THE IDEA OF THE SOFA AS A TIMELESS PRODUCT THAT FINDS ITS BALANCE IN THE COMBINATION OF TRADITIONAL MATERIALS AND SOLUTIONS TYPICAL OF MODERNITY.”

Antonio Citterio

Combinazione calibrata di proporzioni armoniose e comfort eccezionale, Perry Up è il divano componibile dallo stile essenziale che traduce il concetto di eleganza senza tempo secondo Antonio Citterio. Punto di equilibrio tra tradizione e innovazione, Perry Up si distingue per l'attenzione ai dettagli e la qualità dei materiali impiegati. Un sofisticato telaio, in metallo tubolare con piedi alluminio pressofuso, sostiene la parte morbida, composta di cuscini di seduta e schienale imbottiti in soffice piuma d'oca; questo conferisce un aspetto ricercato e accogliente al divano, che trasmette una sensazione di eleganza spontanea. In virtù del suo carattere rigoroso e versatile, Perry Up è in grado di interpretare molteplici ambienti. La varietà degli elementi che compongono il sistema di sedute permette di elaborare configurazioni lineari o più articolate in diverse dimensioni e finiture; con le sue linee ordinate, per i rivestimenti Perry Up può attingere all'intera collezione Flexform di tessuti e pellami, creando originali abbinamenti ton sur ton o a contrasto con il profilo in gros grain o ecopelle.

A calibrated blending of harmonious proportions and exceptional comfort, Perry Up is the sectional sofa whose minimalist style interprets the concept of timeless elegance according to Antonio Citterio. Poised between tradition and innovation, Perry Up is defined by its attention to detail and the quality of the materials employed. An avant-garde tubular metal frame with cast-aluminum feet supports the upholstered parts, composed of seat and backrest cushions padded with soft goose down, lending the sofa a sophisticated yet welcoming appeal, that conveys a sense of spontaneous elegance. By virtue of its formal yet versatile personality, Perry Up is a harmonious fit in many different settings. The variety of elements that comprise the seating system allows the creation of linear or more complex configurations in different sizes and finishes. Thanks to its clean lines, Perry Up can draw from the entire Flexform collection of upholstery fabrics and leathers to create original tone-on-tone or contrasting combinations with grosgrain or eco-leather piping.
